AJKC Brussels Fellowship

The Antall József Knowledge Centre is offering a fellowship opportunity at its Brussels Office beginning in September 2018.

Application Criteria

- Ongoing MA or PhD studies
- Good knowledge of EU affairs
- Published work on EU-related issues is a plus

Tasks

- Participating in the work of AJKC’s Brussels Office (30 hours per week)
- Actively following the work of Brussels think tanks
- Attending various events (e.g. conferences)
- Preparing memos and event summaries
- Seeking out and engaging like-minded organizations

What AJKC Offers

- Stipend for 3 and 6 months (MA students: 1200 EUR/month; PhD students: 1500 EUR/month)
- Opportunities to gain first-hand experience with the work of EU (European Parliament, European Commission) and NATO institutions in Brussels
- Unique insight into the Brussels events of the Hungarian V4 Presidency; opportunity to familiarise oneself with the Visegrad Cooperation
- Visit to AJKC’s Central Office in Budapest
- Participation at the Antall József Summer School (July 2018)

Place of Work: 6 Rond Point Schuman, 1040 Brussels, Belgium

How to Apply

- Please send a professional resume (including photo) and any relevant publications/essays to internship@ajtk.hu.

Application Deadline: 31 May 2018